

A Dozen Delicious Donuts: A Book Reading and Discussion on Immigration, Culture, Resilience and Mental Health

Date: Tuesday, December 10, 2024

Time: 12 - 1 PM (EST)

The MGH Center for Immigrant Health (CIH)'s Migration is Beautiful campaign celebrates resilience, strength and courage of those seeking a better life.

The Maxwell & Eleanor Blum Patient and Family Learning Center and MGH Office of Belonging and Engagement are partnering with CIH to host local Cambodian-American author Chanda Ouk Wolf to read from her book, A Dozen Delicious Donuts.

Patients, families, staff, and the general public are welcome to listen to the reading, and learn more about the health and cultural impacts of migration.

Please submit questions you may have about these topics before the programs to: PFLC@partners.org so that the speakers may address them during the sessions.

Join via Zoom: <https://partners.zoom.us/j/89738859487> or scan the QR code.

Chanda Ouk Wolf writes and speaks about the Cambodian diaspora in America. She is an experienced higher education professional, and her passion for uplifting the voices of immigrants and refugees through children's literature stems from her own lived experience. As the daughter of genocide survivors, she advocates for breaking the silence about the unspeakable truths of Cambodia's Killing Fields. Chanda lives in Boston, Massachusetts, and invites you to visit her at chandaoukwolf.com or Instagram @unspeakable.truths.by.coukwolf.
