

HIV Awareness: Then and Now

Date: Thursday, June 27, 2024

Time: 12–1 pm (Eastern Time)

In recognition of National HIV Testing Day, join experts from the Mass General Sexual Health Clinic, a Division of Infectious Diseases, for a conversation on how HIV has changed over the years. They will briefly overview its controversial and devastating history, discuss how treatment has been a game changer, and then focus on screening and prevention.

- This program is free and open to Mass General patients, families, staff, and the general public.
